

New Hope International Australian Schools Subscription Form

By becoming a subscribing school, NHI can make a valuable contribution to your school in relation to assisting you to implement your vision to be a Christ-centred learning community which has excellent teaching and learning, and service, that is shaped by God's Word.

The benefits of being a subscriber to NHI, are:

1. Professional development through the Effective Teaching and Learning Series (ETLS)
2. Access through the ETLS training to be granted Advanced Standing by Morling Education for one unit in a Master of Education or Master of Education (Leadership) courses
3. Discount (see current fees and charges) for NHI training that provides access to Teacher Accreditation Elements 6 and 7
4. Access to a professional development program called, "Educating for Transformation" that will assist teachers, particularly teachers new to Christian schools, to understand and to practice a biblically-based philosophy of education and pedagogy
5. Access to highly skilled presenters who can provide professional learning and encouragement to staff and leaders, in the tenets of Christ-focused education
6. Opportunities to support overseas mission projects
7. Access to Asset Based Community Development training, to assist with your service learning to overseas schools
8. Advice, experience, networking and assistance in service-learning opportunities and school partnerships
9. Access to NHI staff to visit your school to deliver devotions.

To become a subscribing school and to take advantage of these services, please take a moment to fill out this form and return it to NHI (no payment required as an invoice will be issued).
